MAG. JUDGE ACTION NO. 2:23-MJ-00048

JUAN PABLO RAMIREZ

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A detention hearing has been held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The following requires detention of the defendant pending trial in this case:

(1) There is probable cause to believe the defendant committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. § 841(b)(1)(A); and

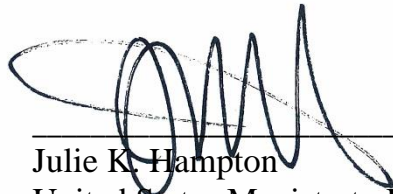

(2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

The evidence against the defendant meets the probable cause standard. The defendant is charged with a serious offense involving a significant amount of cocaine, has a prior federal drug trafficking conviction, has a history of poor compliance with court supervision, previously cut off his ankle monitor while on supervision, has recent serious substance abuse history, has a history of gang involvement, has a lack of verifiable employment, currently lives in Mexico with his wife, and has significant family ties to Mexico. He is a poor candidate for bond. The findings and conclusions of the U.S. Pretrial Services Report are adopted by the Court.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Marshal or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED on January 26, 2023.

United States Magistrate Judge
